

Tohoku University Graduate School of Law and Taiwan Judges Academy signed an Agreement on Academic Exchange.

On May 16, 2019, Tohoku University Graduate School of Law signed an agreement on Academic Exchange with Taiwan Judges Academy.

At the signing ceremony held in Tohoku University Graduate School of Law, President Chan-Chun Chou and 6 people from the Judges Academy attended, and the agreement was exchanged between Taiwan Judges Academy President Chou and Tohoku University Graduate School of Law Dean Naruse.

Followed the signing ceremony, the lecture entitled 'Educating Ultimate Facts in Tohoku University', was held by Professor Hiroshi Sakata (Civil Procedure) and Professor Koichi Shinano (Practitioner Professor, Judge) from Tohoku University Graduate School of Law, the participants of both institutions lively had the discussion and exchanged their opinions.

After this signing the agreement, the relationship between both of institutions is expected to become brisk, such as sending faculty staff from Tohoku University Graduate School of Law to Taiwan Judges Academy, and also judges from Taiwan Judges Academy to Tohoku University Graduate School of Law.

Tohoku University Graduate School of Law Dean Naruse (right) and Taiwan Judges Academy President Chou (left)

Participants of Tohoku University Graduate School of Law and Taiwan Judges Academy